GENERAL SECRETARIAT
17 NOV. 1938

SIR,

Re. Enhancement of the Pay of the Peons working in the Mysore State Charities at Tirupati.

I have the honor to state that according to the sanctioned scale of Income and Expenditure of the above Charities, as per the further-

1) G.O. No.1135-6/Muz.214-28-2 dated 11-12-1928
2) G.O. No.1026-27/Muz.173-35-2 " 30- 1-1936

ally noted Government Orders, the pay of the Daffedar and 3 Peons working in the Office Establishment has been fixed at Rs 12, Rs 10, Rs 9, and Rs 8, respectively (vide V(e) of the scale). The pay of the Menial Establishment was slightly revised in the second of the Orders noted above, but the benefit of this revision was limited to those working in the Chattram Establishment on the Hill and at Lower Tirupati, and did not extend to the Office Establishment of the Peshkar.

The Peshkar of the Charities now reports that the Daffedar & Peons working in the Office Establishment have represented for the enhancement of their pay, by Rs.1 each.

A similar representation was made to me when the Charities were last inspected by me during March 1936.

I consider that the representation of the Menial Establishment is fair, and request that sanction of Government may be finally accorded to the enhancement of their pay by Rs 4 per mensem as per detail, the extra cost being met from the surplus savings of the Charities of the year.

A statement* showing the existing and proposed expenditure under this item, viz., V(e), is enclosed for reference.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

*Statement of expenditure under V(e) according to the sanctioned scale and as proposed.
